

Begin here Enter your name, address, etc.

You will be able to direct how your earthly remains are disposed of after your death

Then you will choose your primary and alternate agents. Make sure to have their names, addresses, and phone numbers available

You will be able to direct specific treatment for specific conditions

You will make decisions about organ donation after your death

You can decide who you DO NOT want to act as Agent for you

If you are not in an end of life situation, you will make decisions about your quality of life and exercise of your rights

You decide how and when to have an Agent removed.

You will include a medical release so your Agent can talk to your medical providers

You will choose how you wish to be treated in end of life situations

You will choose how you should be kept comfortable

You will choose the confines in which your Agent can act